Stu-

I was talking with Rebecca Pontes (another chemist) in the lab today and found out that she received a summons for the Rayon Dancy trial scheduled for October 7, 2010, and the lab numbers Are [REDACTED] Although Rebecca did analyze [REDACTED] I performed the analysis on A09-01733. I believe that you had sent out a previous summons for the same case (scheduled for 7-13-10) for Rebecca only. It ended up that I was unavailable due to another trial date, and Rebecca was going to testify for me. You may have to do this again as I already have a trial scheduled in Pittsfield for October 7th, though I will keep you posted if that changes. Also, if the case ends up getting continued again, could you please make sure that I am on the list to get a summons? Thanks.
